Narrative.

The squadron was constituted on 14 June 1948 as the 56th Finance Disbursing Unit, Fighter, Jet. It activated on 1 August 1948 at Selfridge AFB, Michigan, under the 56th Air Base Group. It inactivated on 1 November 1949 and was disbanded on 9 August 1950.

On 15 August 1988, the unit was reconstituted, redesignated as the 56th Comptroller Squadron, and activated at MacDill AFB, Florida. It was assigned to the 56th Tactical Training (later, 56th Fighter) Wing. Initially, the squadron included the contracting function until 1 November 1991, when the 56th Contracting Squadron activated. In addition to taking care of the wing, the squadron was responsible for the day-to-day financial support of US Central Command and US Special Operations Command. The 56th Comptroller Squadron inactivated on 4 January 1994.

When the 56th Fighter Wing moved to Luke AFB, Arizona, on 1 April 1994, the squadron reactivated under the wing. Today the 56th Comptroller Squadron delivers world-class decision support on all financial matters while deploying mission-ready Airmen.
